

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tori Dumstorf

tori@heardstrategy.com

847-826-0890

James Taylor, Paula Cole, Grace Potter, John Hiatt & Chris Thile To Perform Virtually for The Cabot's 100th Celebration

More than a dozen artists commit to creating a one-of-a-kind virtual centennial celebration for The Cabot

(Beverly, MA – November 18, 2020) Though its doors may be closed due to the pandemic, The Cabot has reinvented itself over the last eight months holding virtual film screenings to socially distanced outdoor concerts. The Cabot has never relented on what it does best - creating unforgettable experiences like any other - including its 100th anniversary.

Kicking off December 3, The Cabot's virtual, free "Lights. Camera. Cabot 100 Celebration" will celebrate the diversity in the arts that The Cabot provides. The reimagined centennial celebration will be a livestreamed event, featuring a mix of regionally and nationally-known A-list musicians, some performing on The Cabot stage. Artists who will perform as part of The Cabot's event include:

- Jon Butcher
- Paula Cole
- John Hiatt
- Hot Tuna
- Raul Malo
- Fantastic Negrito
- Grace Potter
- Rodriguez
- Martin Sexton
- James Taylor
- Chris Thile

"While we are deeply saddened that we cannot come together in person to celebrate our 100th anniversary, we are excited to be able to test our new technologies that can still bring us together as we adapt to this new environment for live entertainment,” said J. Casey Soward, Executive Director of The Cabot. “The Cabot began during the flu pandemic of 1918 and we’re emerging into our next century in the midst of another pandemic. I think it is a true testament to the love and support we’ve received from the community that we’ve stood strong since our reopening in 2014; and that we’re still here, and we’re not going anywhere.”

The Cabot 100 celebration will also unveil the main lobby that has been renovated back to its original grandeur over the past few months. The lobby will be named after The Cabot’s Chairman Emeritus, Steve Dodge, who passed away in January 2019.

The centennial program will pay homage to the five founders who brought The Cabot back to life in 2014 after it had been for sale for over a year: Henry Bertolon, Bill Howard, Rich Marino, Thad Siemasko, and Paul Van Ness. Attendees will have the option to purchase a specialty cocktail kit to be delivered to their home to raise a glass in celebration. Each cocktail kit has been named after one of the founders and includes both ingredients and glassware. A mocktail offering will also be available.

More information on the event can be found at thecabot.org/cabot100celebration.

###

About The Cabot

For a century, The Cabot in Beverly has been a local treasure, a dream palace at the heart of the downtown, and a welcoming gathering place for generations of North Shore residents. Originally known as The Ware, this opulent, neoclassical-style theater was built in 1920 by the renowned architectural firm Funk & Wilcox. Originally used for vaudeville shows and silent movies, it was later owned by the movie chain E.M. Loews. In 1976, The Cabot was purchased by Le Grand David and his own Spectacular Magic Company, and for the next 36 years was home to this world-famous magic show. The Cabot is now being transformed into a 21st century venue for audiences of all ages, with nationally recognized live performers, current and classic movies and community events. Since its reopening in November 2014, The Cabot is once again a vital part of the North Shore's artistic life. The Cabot is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2020. visit <https://thecabot.org>.